SENIORS

SENIORS MEET CHALLENGE OF FINAL YEAR

Class officers: Cathy Hall, Secretary; Jackie Pierson, Treasurer; Lee Hansel, Vice-President; and Stan Davis, President look proud and happy upon reaching the apex of their high school career.

Beginning their final year, the '65' seniors displayed great enthusiasm for school programs and actually participated in many events.

Sports presented an area of interest to all. Girls screamed while the best football team in ten years thundered on to victory with a backfield of energetic upperclassmen. In addition, seniors comprised the backbone of the basketball team with four starters and also contributed to a thrilling baseball season. Still other class members were on the track and golf teams.

The '65' graduates provided laughs for the community as well as for themselves. Memories of play practice, tickets, props, and stage fright will always be treasured by those who made "You Can't Take It With You" an overwhelming success.

Other never-to-be-forgotten experiences include the common love of all seniors--Mr. Hill's government class. Here, unbiased lectures are presented on topics ranging from "The Genius of F.D.R." to the "----- Republican Party." This year's election campaigners proved to be a challenge to the Goldwater faction led by Tom Driscoll, but unfortunately, as usual, Mr. Hill had the "last laugh." This, generated with the interest aroused by the "mysterious appearance" of an Amish buggy on the school roof created a year of excitement and chaos.

Certainly, long after graduation, the seniors will be able to recall the unique and fun-filled moments one enjoys while attending D.H.S.

AT SCHOOL

Dublin's energetic Juniors worked towards providing the seniors with the best Junior-Senior Prom ever, by sponsoring the basketball homecoming; dances with Johnny and the Rebels, the music masters of Dublin High School; and a profitable candy sale.

Additional activities included the class play, "The Silver Whistle," and a much-coveted "Junior Slop Day."

NEW STATUS

The sophomores kept busy this year with such classes as biology, English, geometry, and Latin II. They also participated in school activities --cheerleading, sports, G.A.A., F.F.A., dances, D-Teens, homecomings, and choir. Then, to end the year properly, they chose their class rings; and their thoughts turned to becoming juniors.

All in all, one would say that the sophomores enjoyed this year; whether they were pestering Mr. Wagner, "jerking" to Johnny and the Rebels, or cheering at a game.

The new-comers making the change from Junior High School at first found themselves befuddled and in a state of chaos and confusion. They adjusted easily to the change of pace, however; and found a variety of clubs and activities to suit their interests. The freshman added their share of support to the clubs, and they contributed spirit to the teams and the cheers.

GRID SCENE CHANGES AT DUBLIN

The 1964-65 Shamrocks were lead to their best season in 11 years by head coach Howard Millisor. Craig Duffey, captain and senior quarterback, supplied the strong right arm to carry Dublin to a 6-4 record. Craig lead all FCL teams in pass completions and Bob Morrison his favorite target, was Dublin's top pass receiver. Charles Painter lead all team rushers this year.

The Shamrocks started quickly this season as they won their first five games in a row. Injuries hampered our team in the latter stages as they won only one game out of four. Coach Millisor will lose ten lettermen via graduation this year.

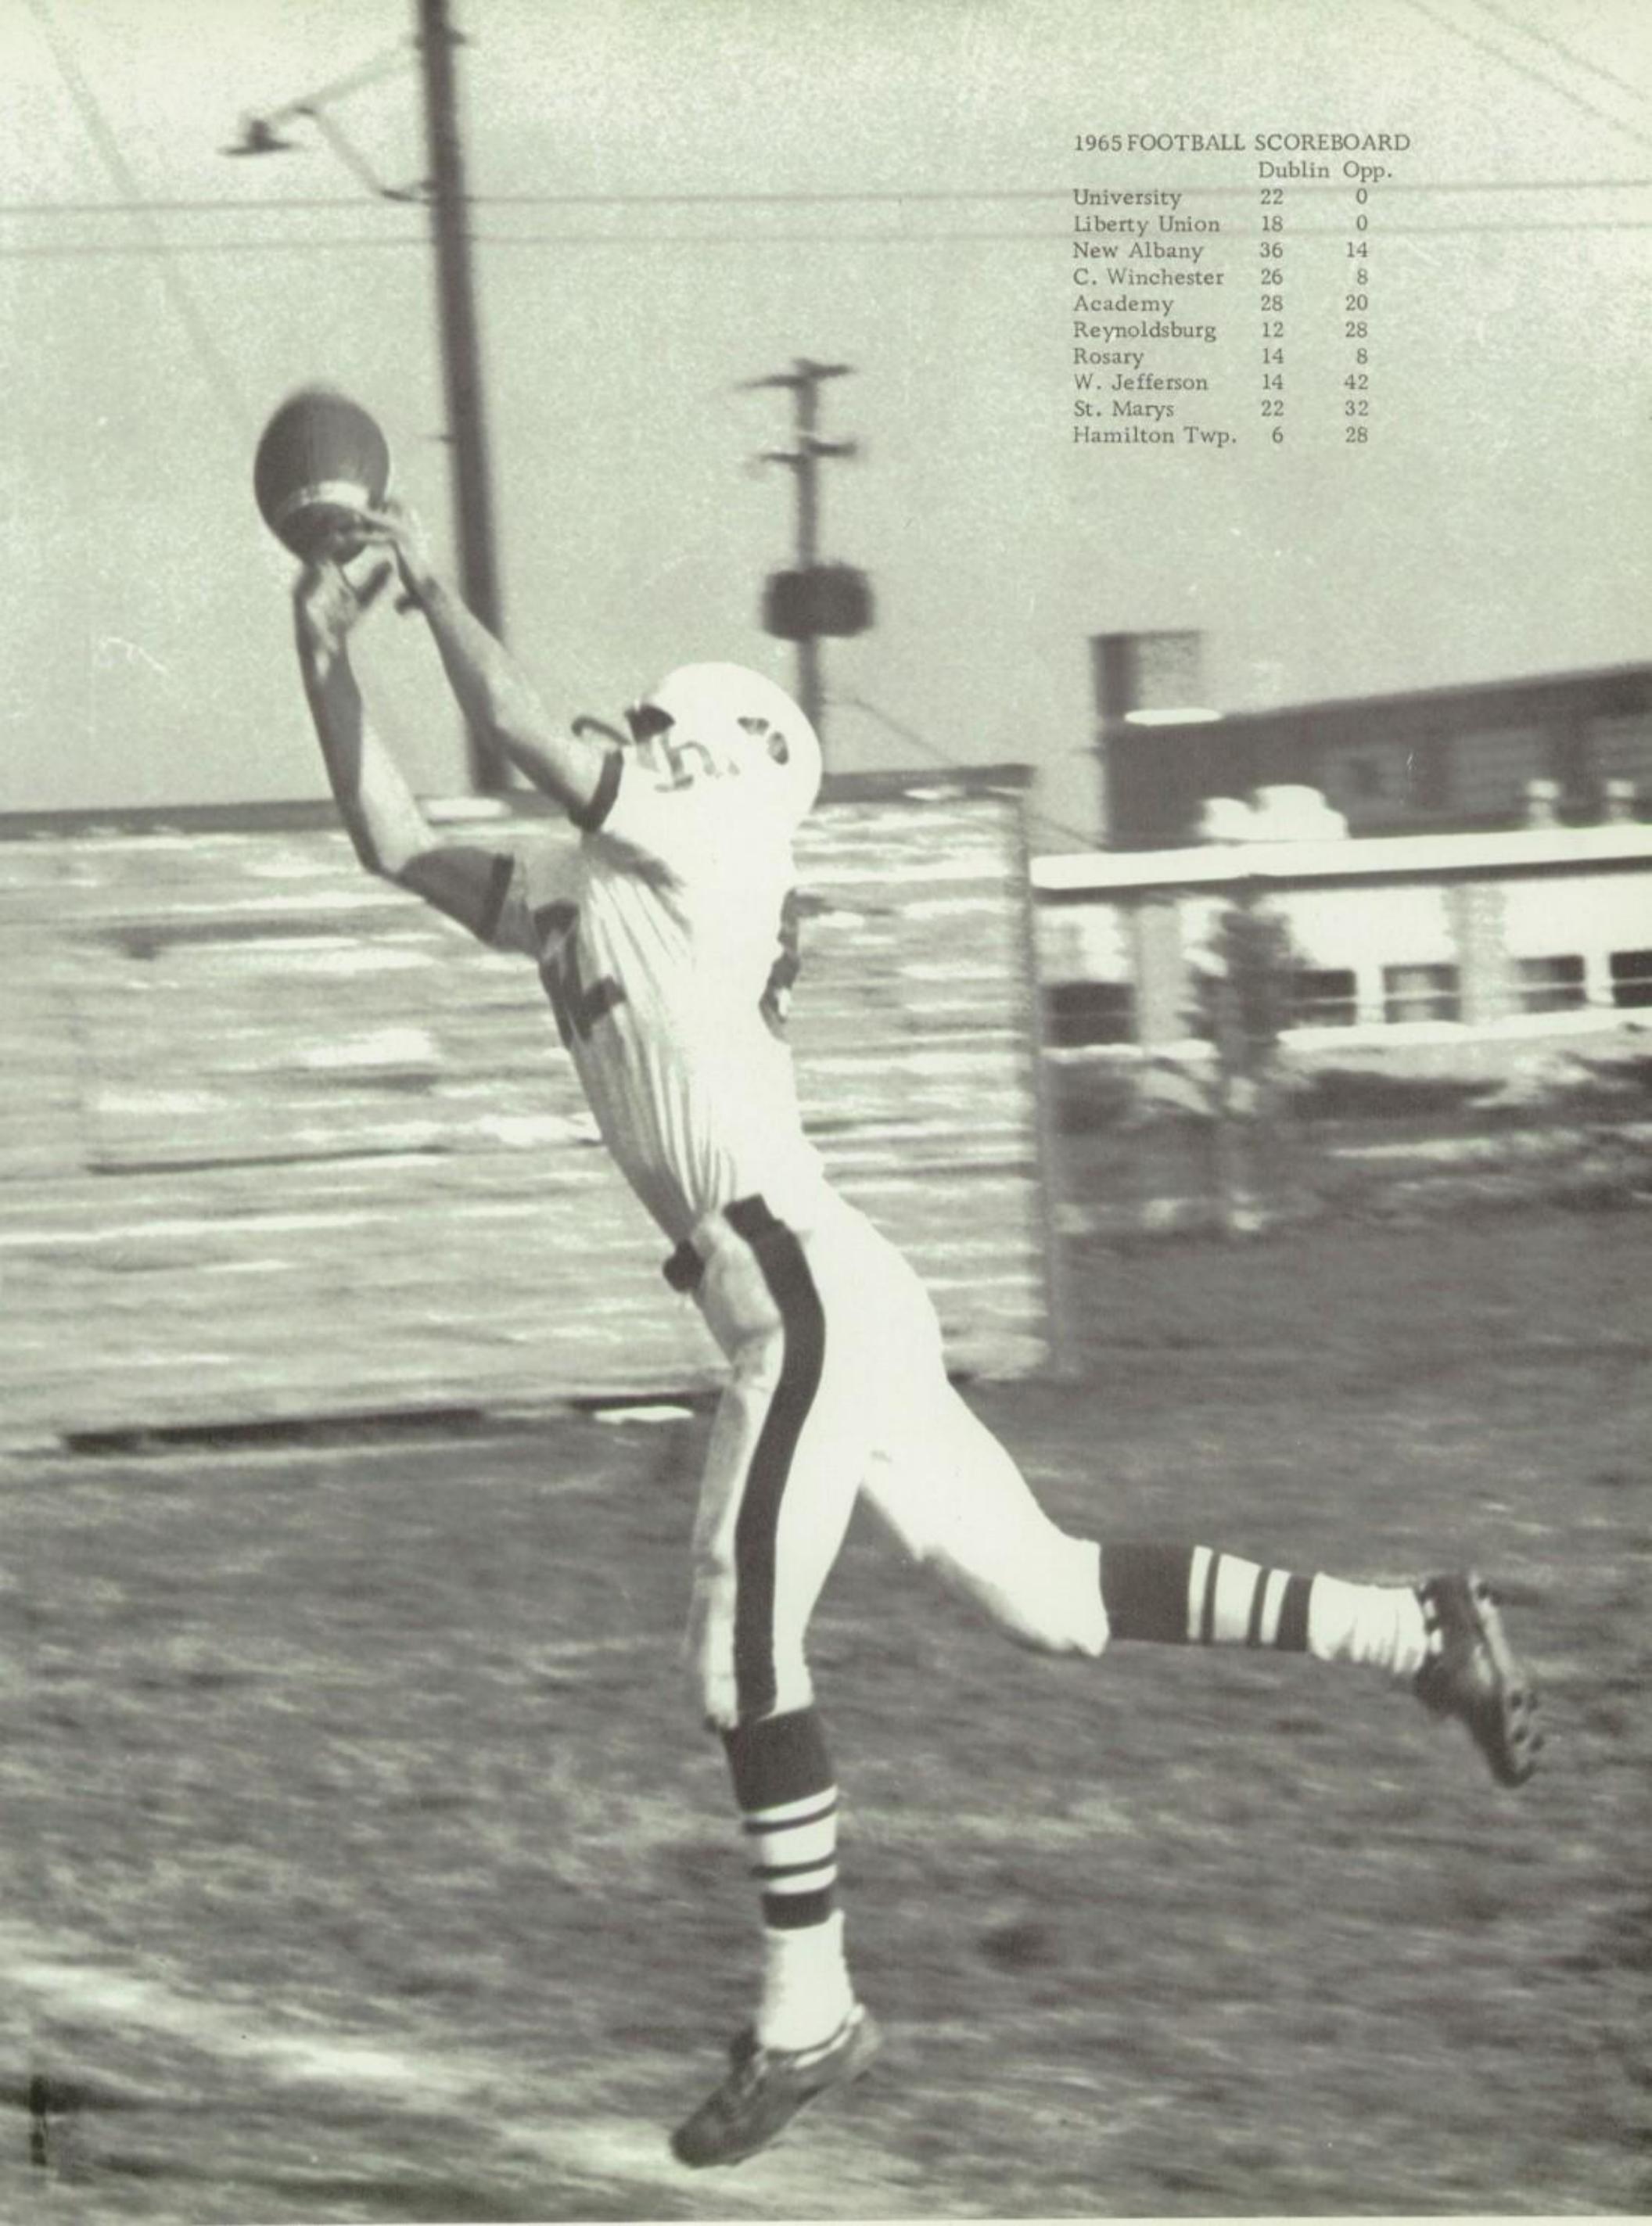

Dublin was represented on the All-County team by Craig Duffey, repeater and Honorable mention All-Ohio; Bob Morrison, ace pass receiver; and David Geese.

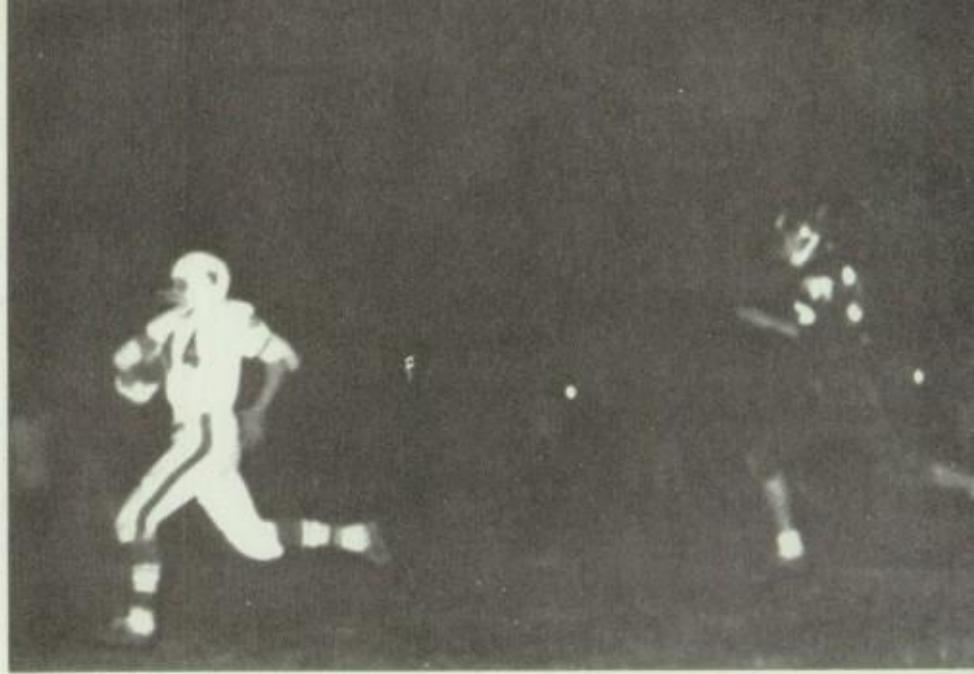

Coaches D. Ewing, H. Jones, and H. Millisor

An ecstatic cry, vigorous practice, wild applause, and "Battle-cry"--all were familiar to our enthusiastic squad of football cheerleaders, headed by Sandy Greene. With the aid of their pep and leadership, Dublin crowds cheered the Shamrocks through an exciting 6-4 season.

CAGERS PLAY WITH "SCRAP AND HUSSLE"

Although the 1964-65 basketball team was not Dublin's best record-wise, opponents will not soon forget the "scrappy Shamrocks." At times, the Shamrocks played an excellent brand of basketball, while at others, they seemed to "scrap and hussle" in vain as their shots would not drop through the bucket.

When asked what he thought of this year's team, Coach Close replied, "These men have more hussle, scrap, and desire than any team that I have ever coached."

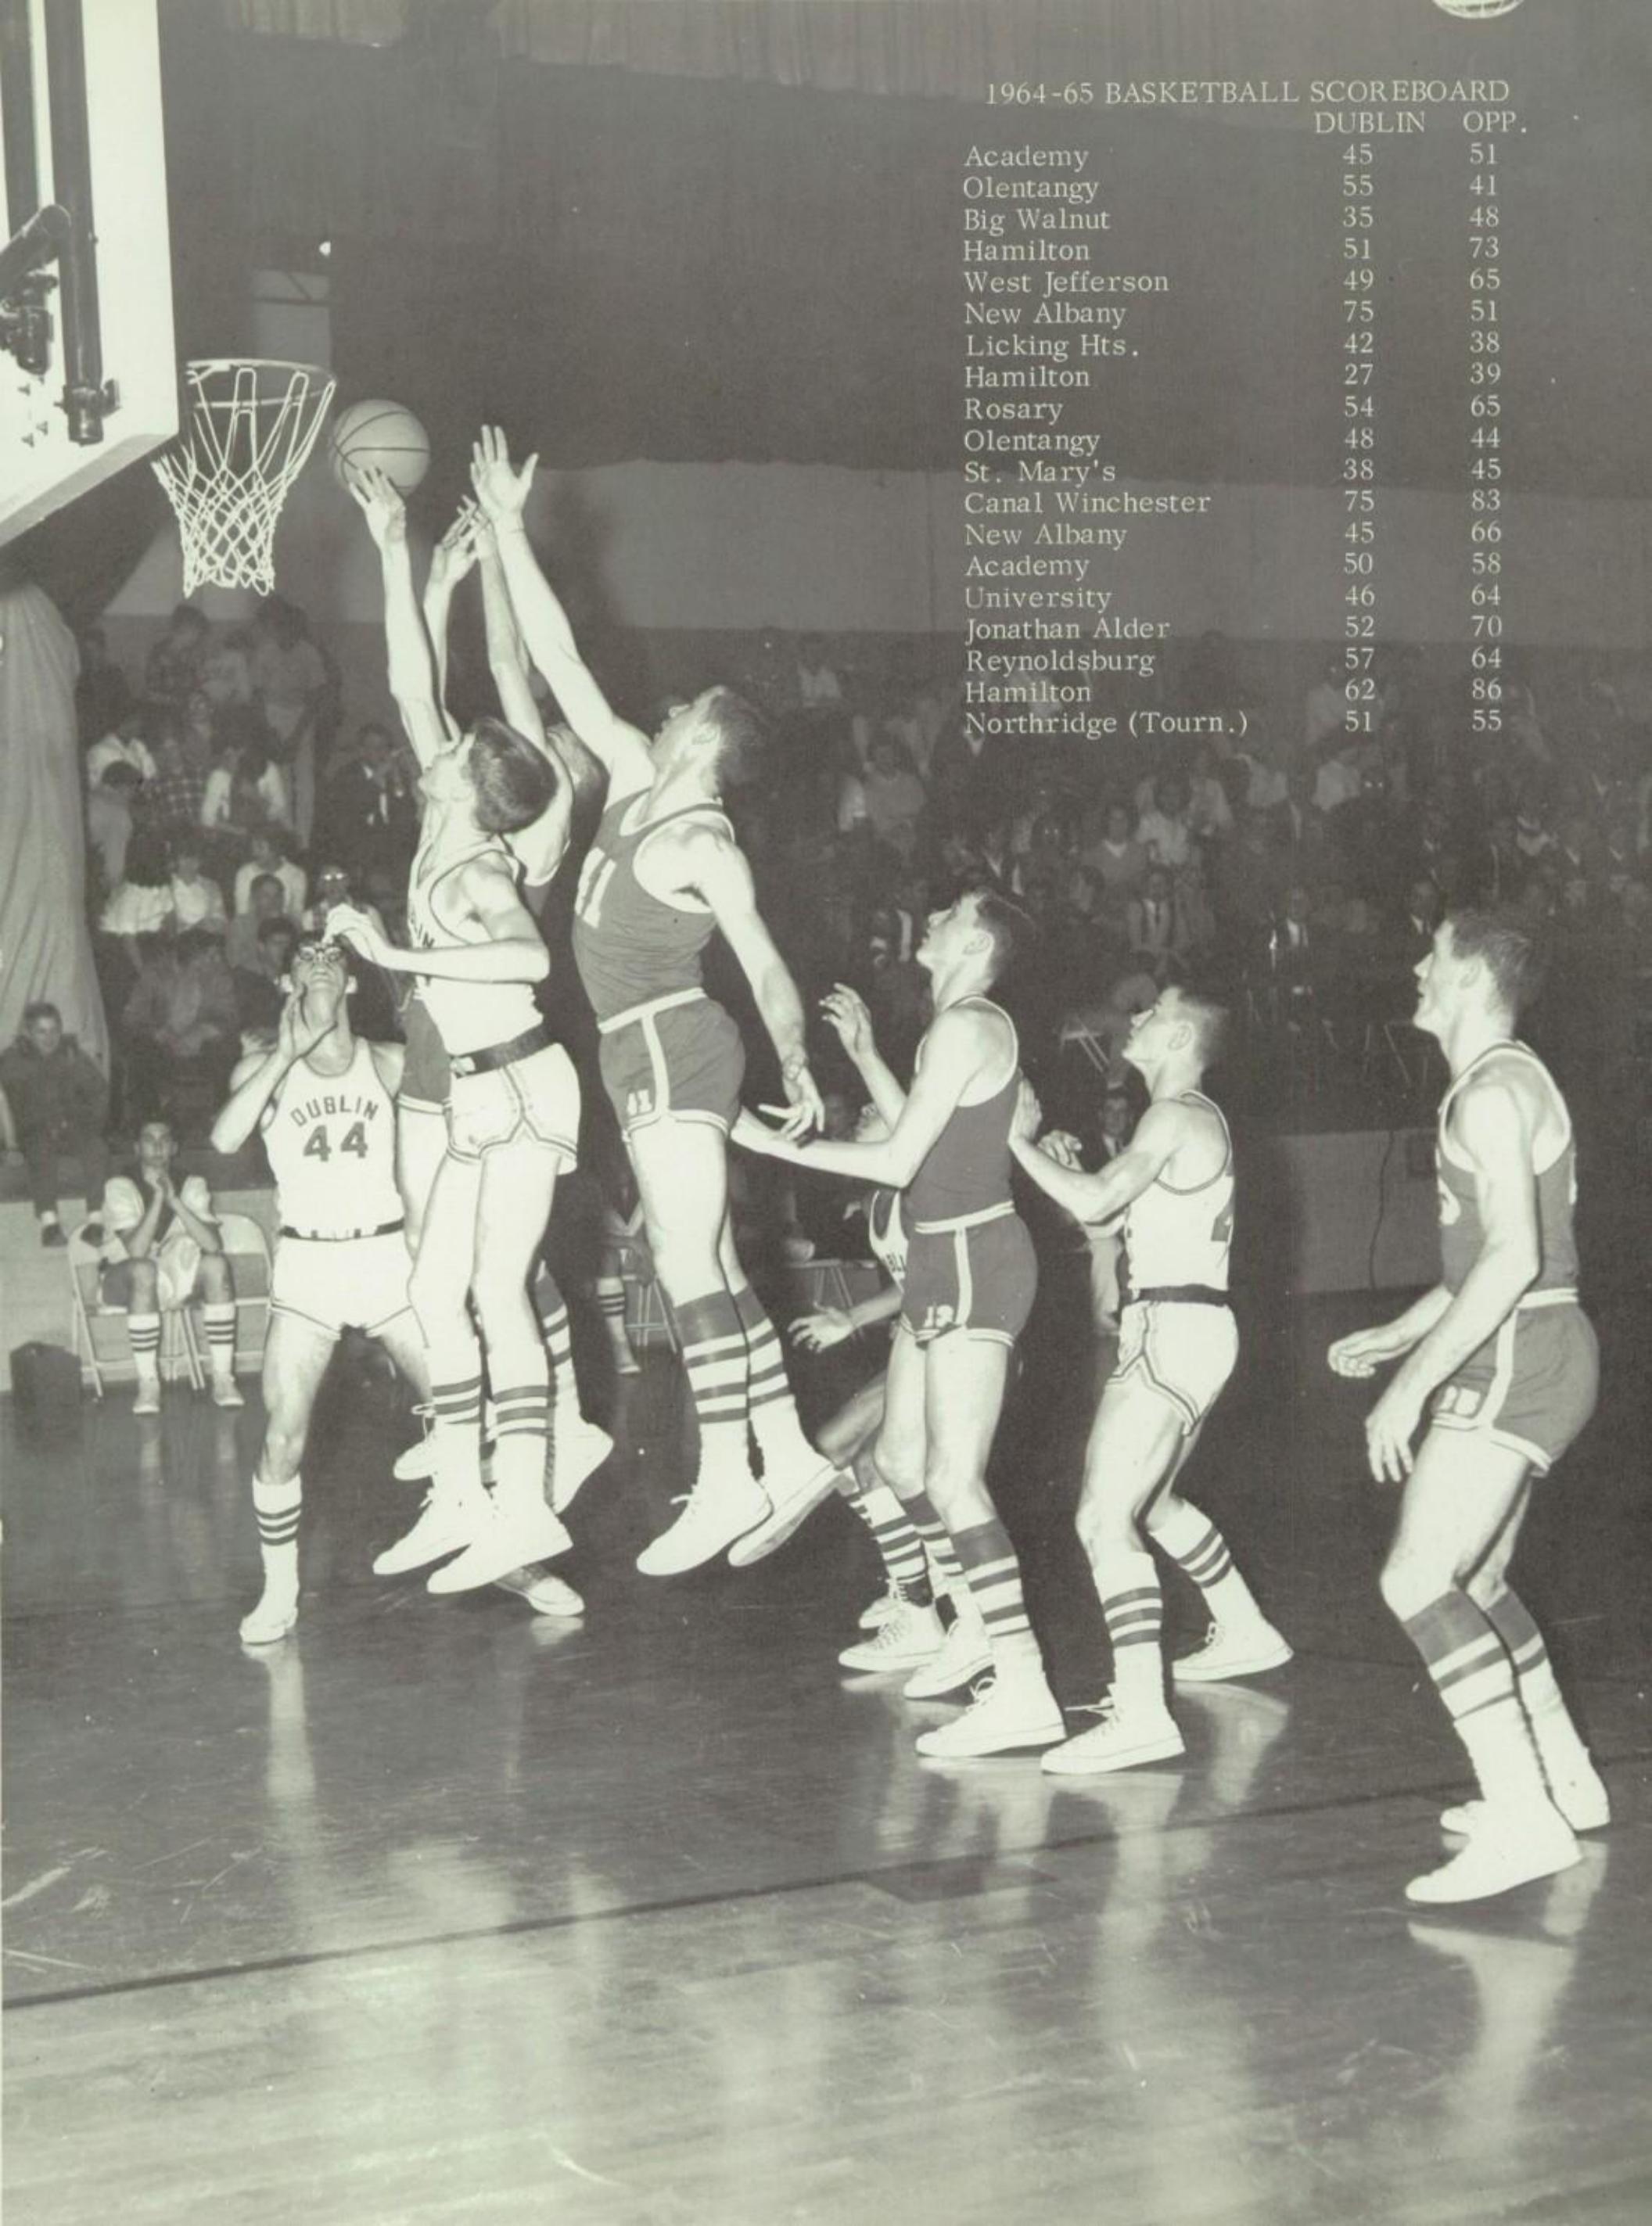

The leading scorer was team captain, Jim Weaver, who had 196 points, while Lee Hansel led all Dublin rebounders with a 218 total.

Dublin was represented on this year's All-County squad by Lee Hansel and Gary Morgan, who both received Honorable Mention.

Lee Hansel sends the ball arcing towards the bucket.

CHEERLEADERS MULTIPLY SCHOOL SPIRIT

The varsity cheerleaders were: Trudie Van Arsdale, head; Marla Benner; Sandy Greene; Linda Burchfield; and Cheryl O'Dell.

As the basketball players spent many gruelling hours in practice, so, too, did the varsity cheerleaders have to work hard at developing new cheers and chants to enable them to serve their school to the best of their ability.

Cheerleading, besides requiring hard work, also demands sacrifices. In cheerleading, a girl must give her all at every game, whether the team wins or loses. For it is her responsibility to use cheers and chants to generate true school spirit.

Although cheerleading requires so much time and demands sacrifices the satisfaction and self-confidence gained through the experience makes it an honor never to be forgotten.

The 1964-65 Reserve basketball squad exhibited perseverance and determination as it drove to a 5 win--11 loss season.

The team, coached by Mr. Ewing, time and time again displayed tireless optimism as they gained possession of the basketball and the lead--only to lose both in the last precious second of the game.

Few fans will forget the thrilling moments during which the game could have gone to either side, and few will forget the times when the victories went to the Shamrocks!

RESERVE CHEERLEADERS LEAD TEAM TO VICTORIES

This year's Reserve Cheerleading Squad was a comparatively new one. There were a lot of goals to be met, and each girl did her part. They worked hard on developing new cheers, and provided each Reserve game with school spirit.

This year's Reserve Cheerleaders were: Mary Ann Montgomery; Chris Spaeth; Robin Blackford, head; Donna Tracy; and Susan Sheldon.

DUBLIN "9" LEAVE MARK IN COUNTRY AND DISTRICT

The cries of "rag-arm," "nice call Ump," and "How about a homer?" filled the air. Students at Dublin knew spring was here, and that it was again baseball season.

Both the squad members and school could well be proud of Coach Close's relatively new team; for with a record of 14 wins and 5 losses, the baseballers tied for second place in the County League and captured the District runner-up spot.

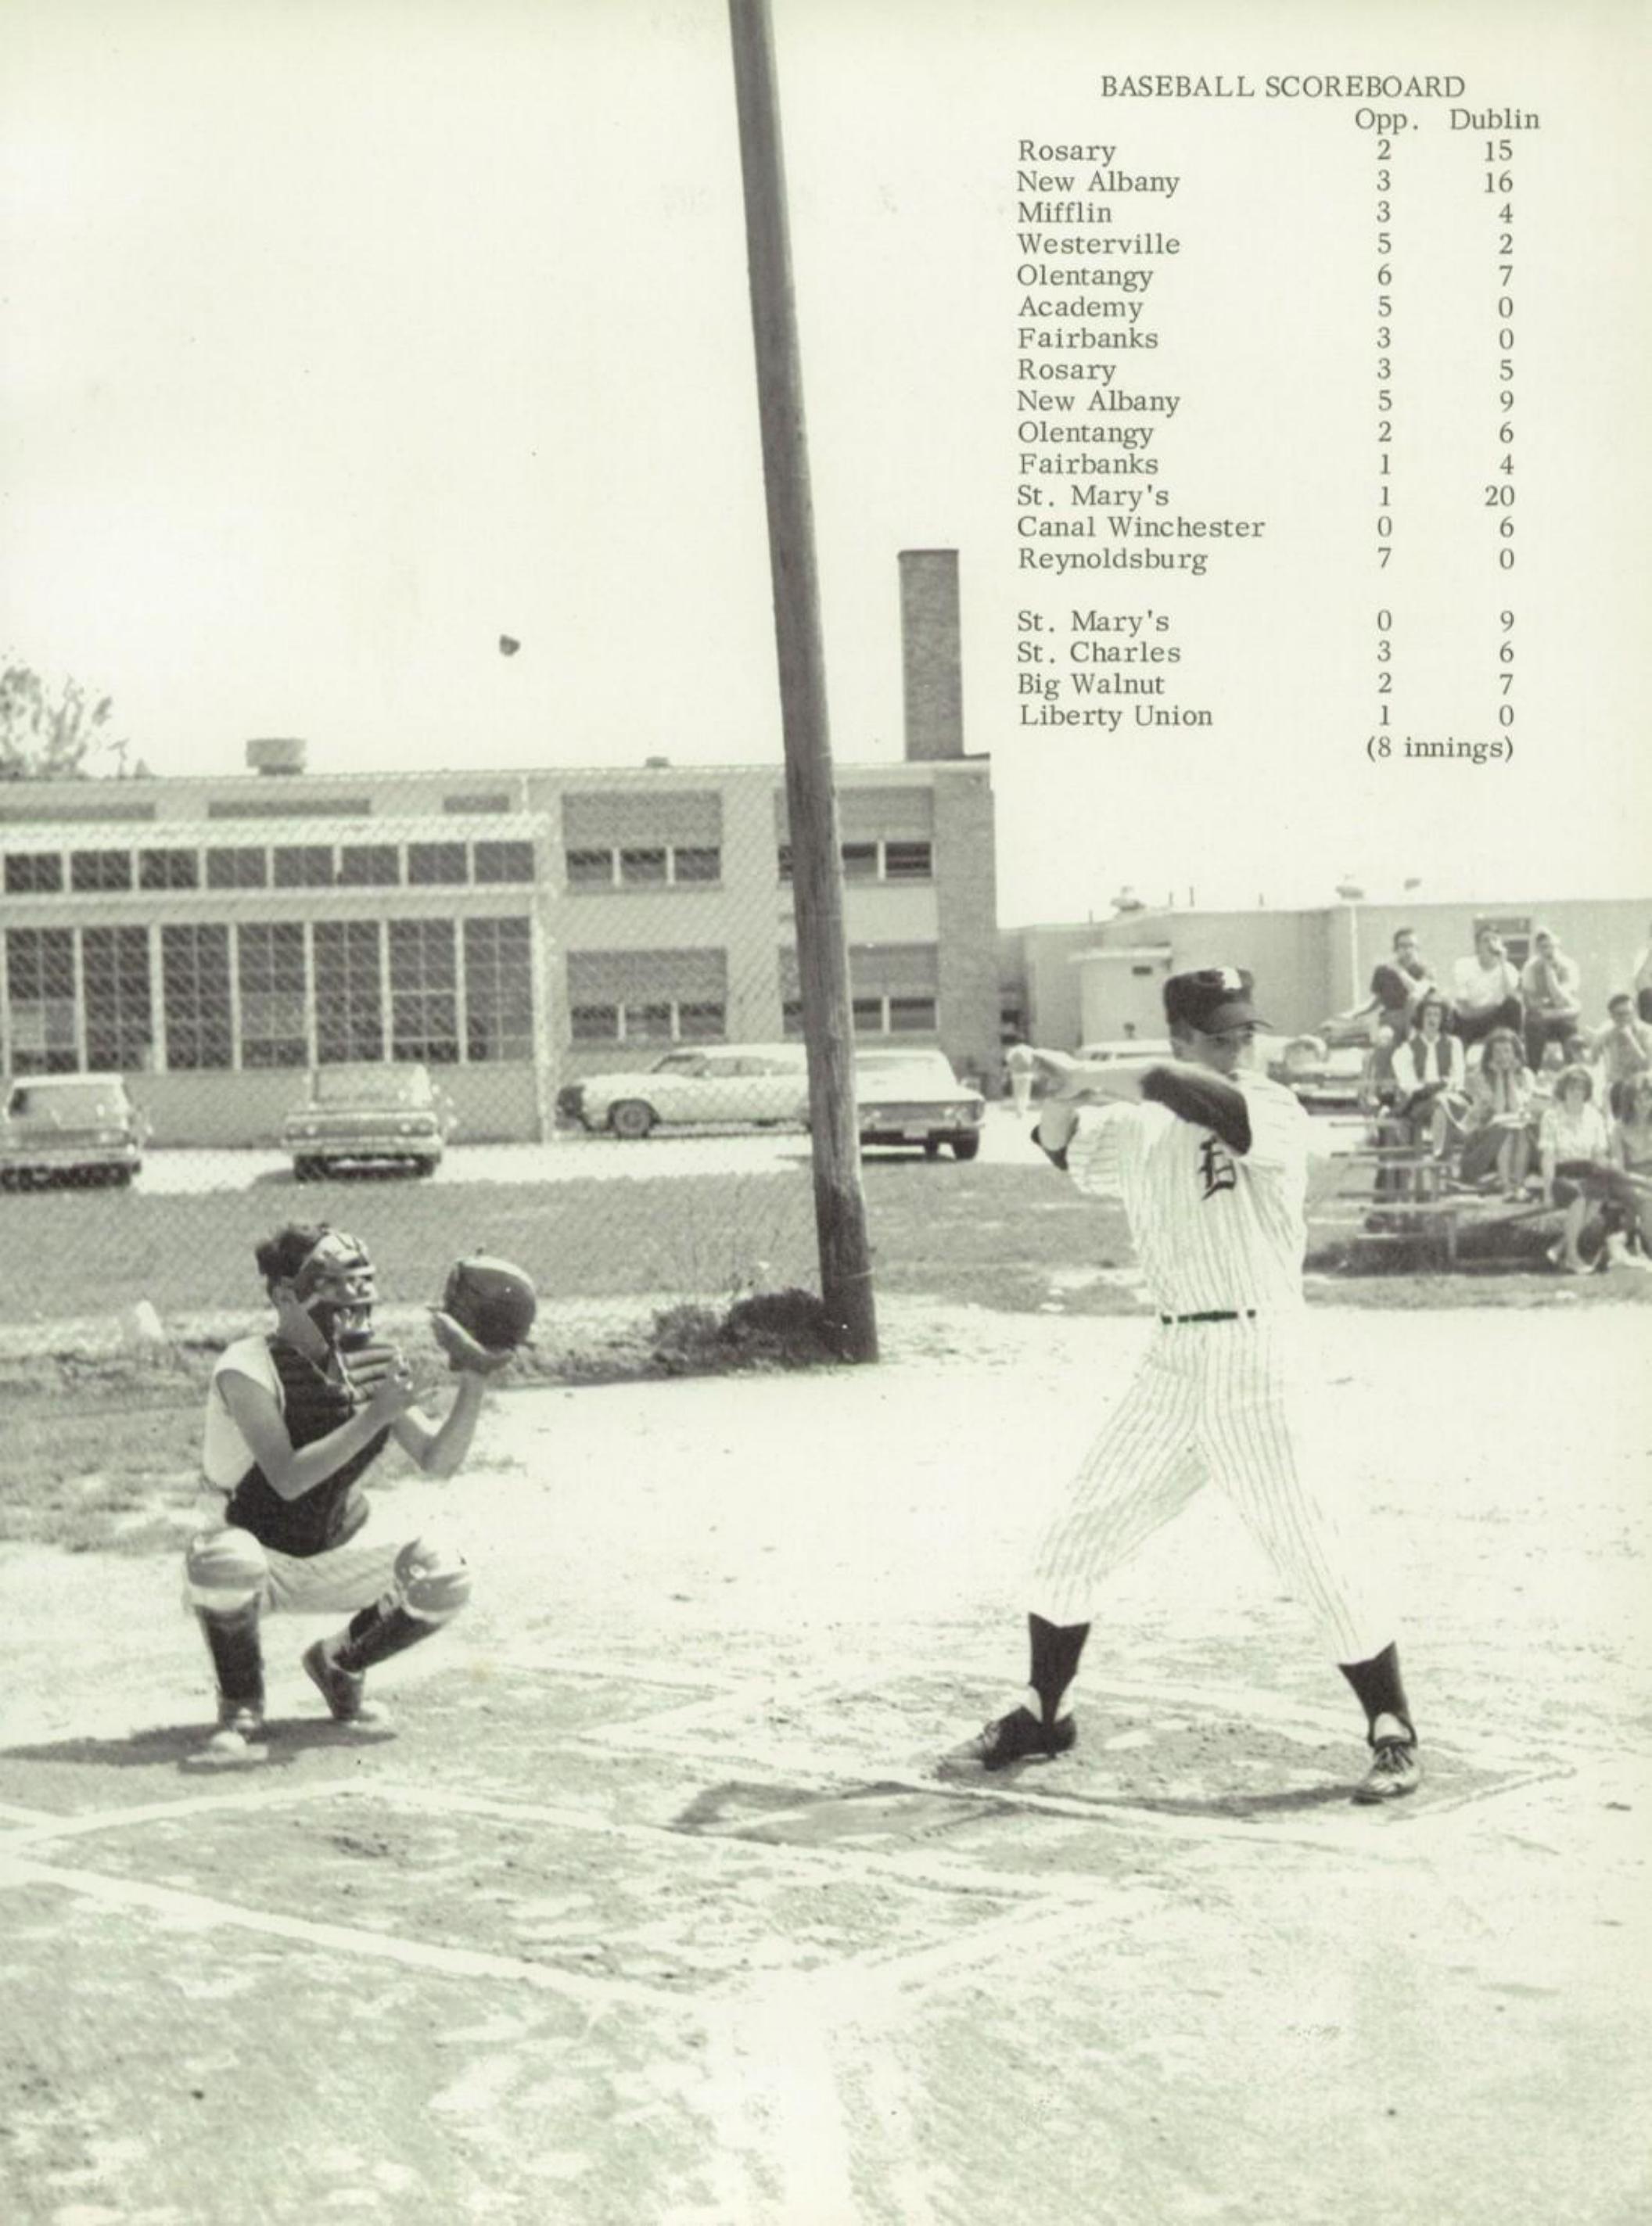

Special mention should also be made of seniors Craig Duffey, Stan Davis, Gary Morgan, and Jim Weaver; for without their familiar faces, baseball would not have been the 1965 season that Dublinites enjoyed.

Pitcher, Stan Davis, takes a swing while the opposing St. Mary's team looks on.

CINDERMEN INCREASE COUNTY COMPETITION

The members of the 1965 Track team worked hard this year. And their efforts proved to be for the better. The team won more meets than ever before, and brought the sport of track and field events into a new light at Dublin.

Coached by Mr. Ewing, the team placed third in the County League. Then, Jim Davis, Joe Bogner, and the members of the relay team went on to the District contest. Thus, Dublin was well represented in both the County and the District.

Jim Haning gives his final effort, but is bested by an Arlington man.

Tom Hay puts the shot in the track meet held at Arlington High School.

Flying high, Leonard Tracy soars over the hurdles.

TRACK ACTION

Jim Haning snatches the baton in the relay race.

Gary Kinniard flies high and wide over the pole.

GOLFERS DISPLAY ABILITIES IN TOURNAMENTS

1965 GOLF TEAM--L. Closson, D. Lambert, D. Brandon, B. Mueller, S. Herbert, B. Beetle, K. Cline, P. Grabill, T. Owens, Mr. Jones, Coach.

Birdies and bogies were familiar terms to the members of this year's golf team. Through practice at Duros and Worthington Hills Country Clubs, and occasional rounds at Bash Recreation Center, the boys were taught the basic fundamentals and skills of the game by Herb Jones, their coach.

The first team, consisting of Tom Owens, Scot Herbert, Doug Lambert, and Bob Mueller, could well be proud of the record which they compiled. In County tournament competition, Dublin's golfers placed third, while in the District tournaments, we proudly placed twenty-eighth out of forty-six teams. Coach Jones hopes that this will be a solid start for the newest sport at Dublin.

CURTAIN GOING UP FOR JUNIORS

Dennis Brandon and Pam Miller hold hands at Dean

Michael's maturity looks on.
The students in the junior class had their annual matinee last
Wednesday night at the Blarney
Theater. The program included a short film, a musical number, and a comedy sketch. The audience enjoyed the show.

STUDENT COUNCIL GROWS TO MEET GREATER TASKS

Student Council, advised by Mr. Wagner, played a major role in the life of the student body. This year's officers--Mike Calhoun, president; Linda Llewellyn, vice-president; Marta Cook, secretary; and Mike Wallace, treasurer--held regular meetings every two weeks. The council itself was enlarged by the addition of home room representatives.

Council's activities included the revision of a student handbook and sponsoring the yearly safety week which included a film shown to the student body in order to encourage highway safety.

Student Council adviser, Mr. Wagner, points out a problem to president, Mike Calhoun.

D-TEENS

The D-Teens was quite a busy organization this past year under the guidance of Mrs. Harris. In the fall all new Freshman girls were anxiously anticipating the "terrors" of initiation. Then there was the hard yet enjoyable work in preparing for the long awaited Christmas Ball. In the Spring the D-Teens sponsored a Sadie Hawkins Dance. Both were a big success. Then as the school year was drawing to an end, the May Breakfast was held. At the breakfast the new officers were announced and the new members were introduced.

D-Teen officers: L. Ellis, Program Chairman; G. Delewese, Sr. Rep.; L. Jones, Treas.; C. Kilbury, Pres.; C. Faulk, V. Pres.; J. Greene, J. Stone, C. O'Dell, Rep.

G.A.A. STRIVES FOR FUN AND PHYSICAL FITNESS

The girls of the Dublin High School Girl's Athletic Association placed the accent on athletics as they found themselves involved in a myriad of sports activities. Cook-out, horseback riding, ice skating, and bowling were just a few of the extra activities in which the girls participated.

Under the leadership of G.A.A. president, Jackie Pierson, and the guidance of advisor, Mrs. Headlee, the club became the most efficient and well-organized G.A.A. yet.

Advisor, Mrs. Headlee, is caught while relaxing on the trampoline.

Trowbridge, T. Depp, C. Bynner, J. Stailey.

"Left, right," "knees up," "eight to five," and "Haning, you're on Goon Squad" were all familiar sounds to the members of the 1965 Dublin Marching Band. Under the direction of Mr. Robert Reinhard, the band displayed a variety of shows which ranged from drills to a salute to the football Homecoming Queen. The band should be congratulated on its fine performances.

The band officers this year are Lee Hansel, Pat McClure, Sherry Segner, Mike Wallace, and Susan Sheldon.

MAJORETTES PROVIDE HALFTIME ENTERTAINMENT

Marching in front of this year's Dublin Band were three snappy majorettes--Linda Copeland, Lynda Bishop, and Pam West. The effective routines planned by Linda Copeland, head majorette, lent sparkle to the excellent shows produced by the band.

The girls pose prettily for the photographer. They are Lynda Bishop, Linda Copeland, and Pam West.

YEARBOOK CHANGES ARE MADE

"Truck," "gutter," and "layout boards" were familiar words to those students who worked hard to make the 1965 SHAMROCK the most successful yearbook ever. Several changes were instituted by the staff; among those were an enlarged book, more pages, and color pictures. The time and effort required to produce a good yearbook is great; however, the staff feels it was worth it.

Our SHAMROCK advisor, Mrs. Karen Adkins.

A counsel is held, and in it are Kay Shonkwiler, layout editor; Linda Ellis, editor; Dennis Brandon, junior editor; and Linda Copeland, business manager.

DANCED*

Looking lovely, Linda Burchfield reads the class will.

The knights and ladies dance to the music of Jim Coram and his band. The theme of "Knights of Old" was provided with an excellent setting in the King's Inn at the Arlington Arms.

ALL NIGHT . . .

Junior, Phil Pence, gets a laugh as he prophesies the future of the Class of 1965.

The audience listens attentively to the speakers before the dance begins.

Jim Haueisen recalls the history of the seniors while class dignitaries look on.

The Seniors listen to some timely advice given by the speaker, Mr. Edward Chapman, of The Ohio Bell Telephone Co.

GRADUATION CEREMONIES DRAW CURTAIN ON HIGH SCHOOL LIFE

The formalities over, the Class of 1965 now anxiously await the presentation of their diplomas.

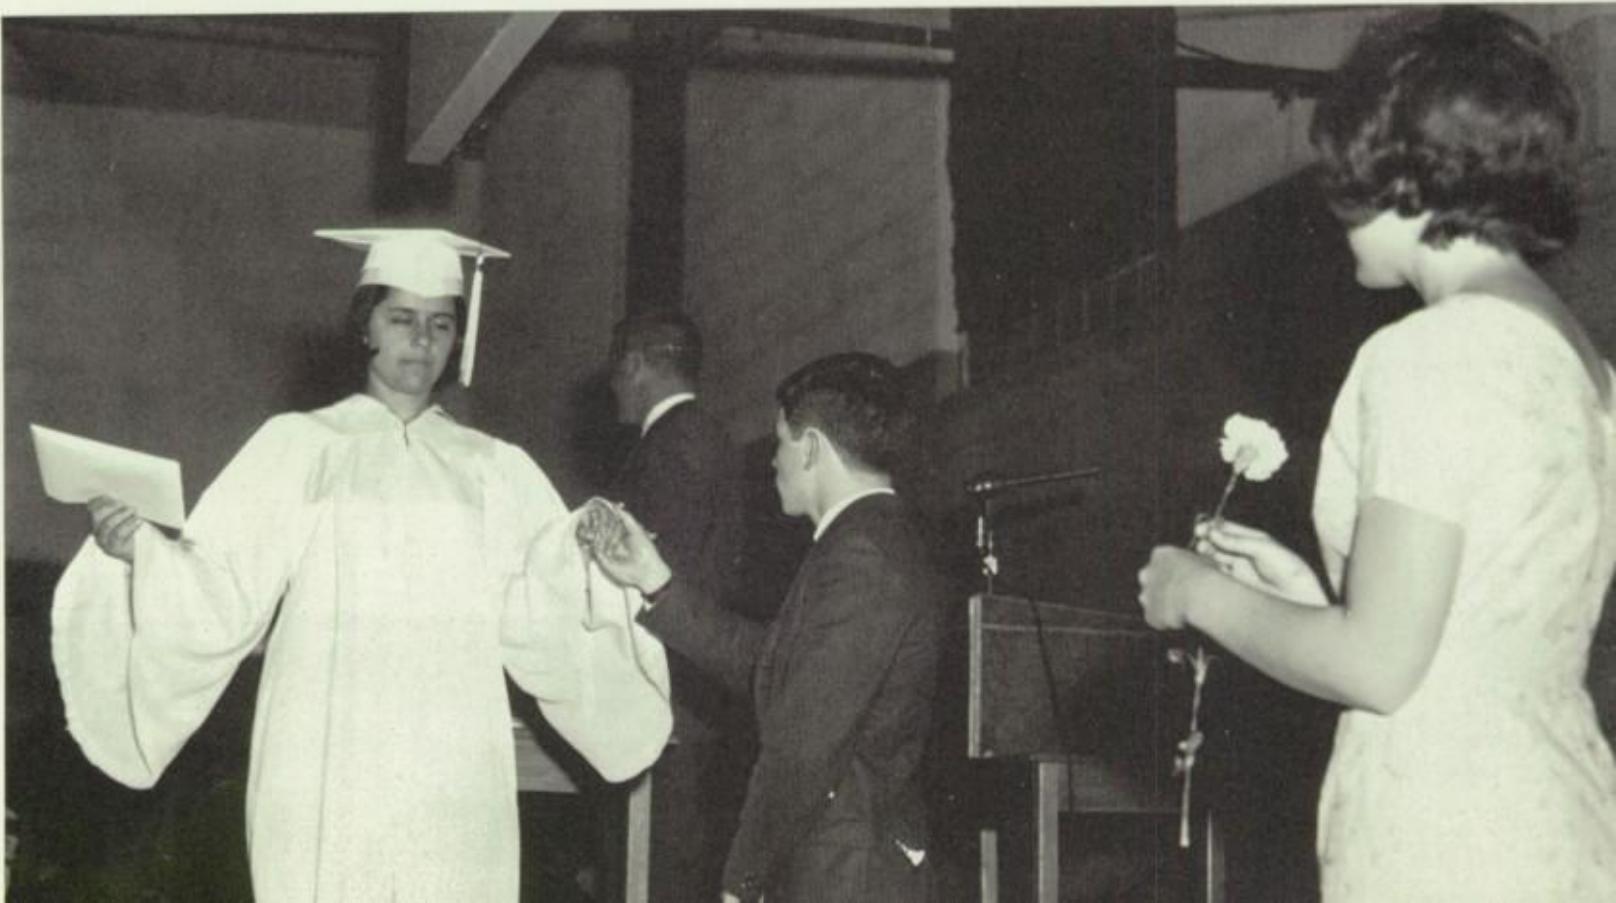

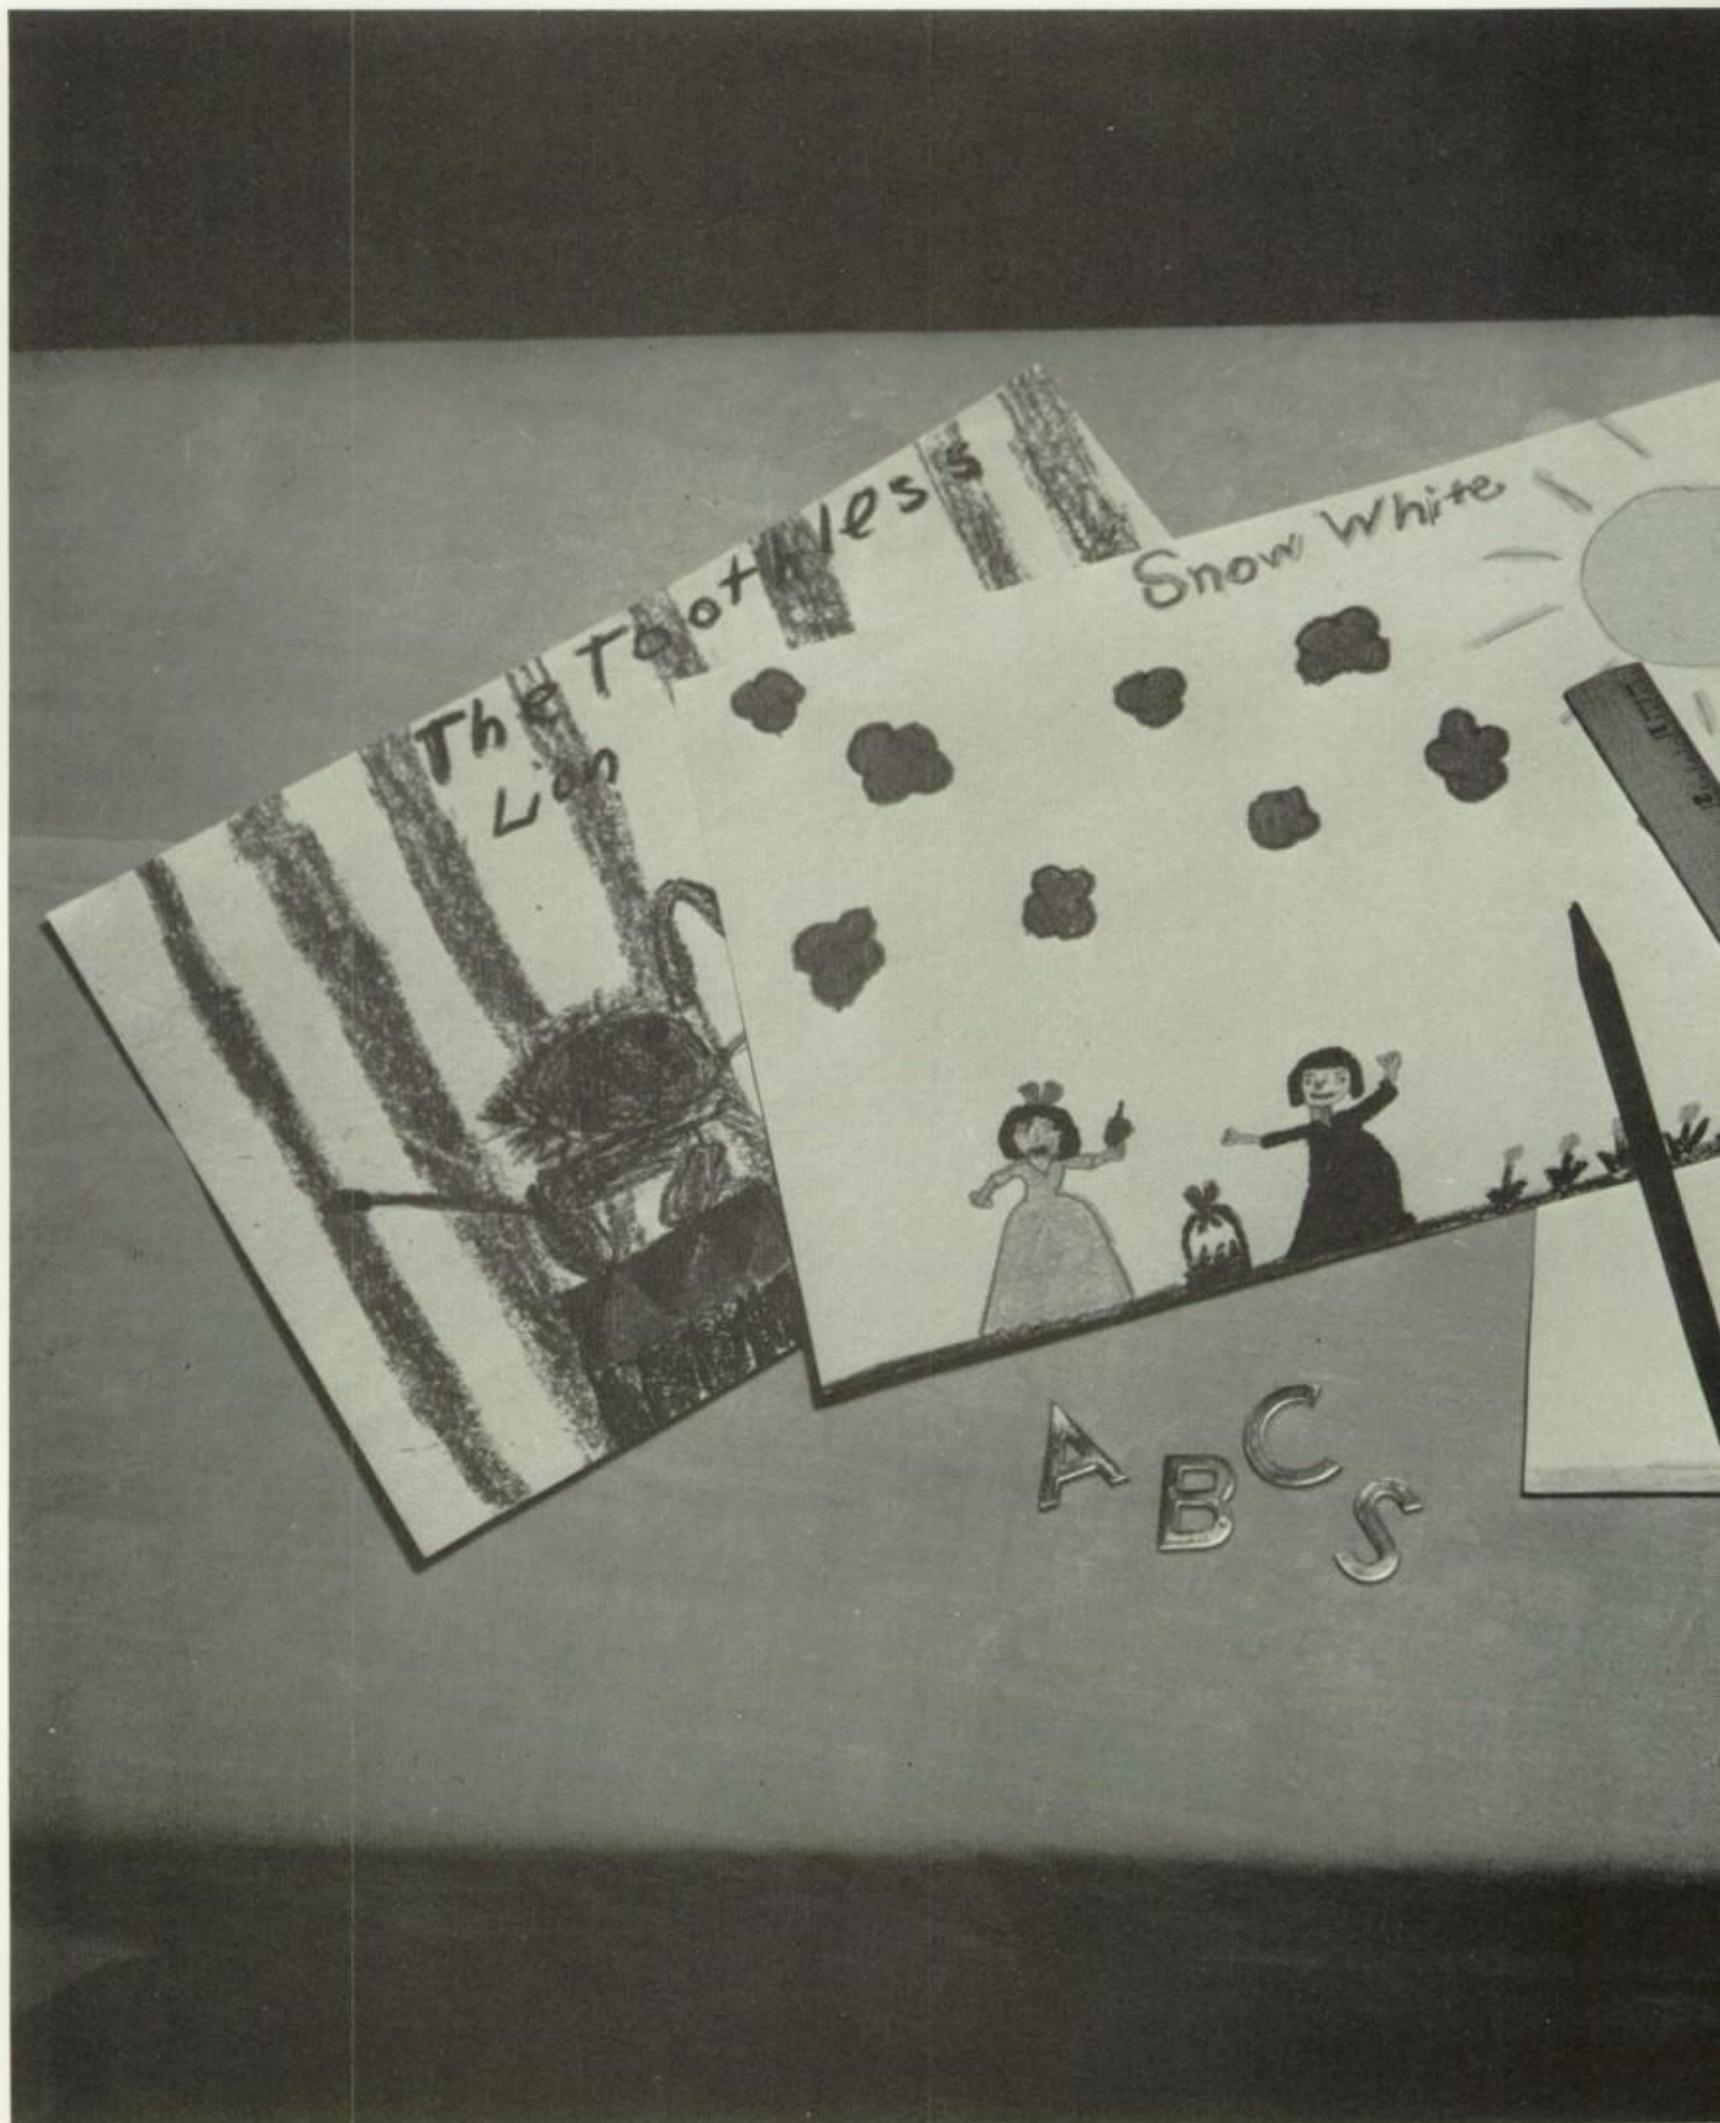

Anna Eger probably feels both sad and happy as she reaches for her diploma.

Honorary member, Jose Cordova gets a smile and a congratulatory handshake from Board of Education president, Richard Leppert.

It is a solemn Beverly Hatcher who steps from the stage with diploma in hand. However, she realizes that graduation is only the end of the old and the beginning of the new.
